

Save creativity in radio--Please don't allow giant mega-conglomerate corporations to control OUR radio! Increase restrictions on how many stations corporations can own, PLEASE don't decrease them!!! Restrictions are extremely necessary to prevent corporate monopolies which effectively destroy free speech! Do you really want companies like Clear Channel owning every station in each market??? I certainly don't!!! Commercial radio stations already sound like clones of each other, this will make it worse!!